Never

Binocular

So just go go away 'cause I never wanna know so just run run away but the shadows take your place

It's a long and lonely road if you take it take it home I knew the time was near but you had me had me wrong

And if you say that you were mine then i believe that's a crime and if you live by candlelight then the faded then the faded memory lines they go away 'cause i never wanna know so just run run away but the shadows take your place

No lies could shelter you but you hide them hide them well but morning comes too soon and it's too late too late to tell

And if you say, that you believed then the memories they deciev e and if today you spread your wings and the feelings and the fee lings never change they go away like the leaf you'll get stripped awa y so just run run away but the shadows still remain they still re $\ensuremath{\mathsf{main}}$

That day we hid behind our words until we lied that day we promised that we'd never turn away that day we slipped into the night not to be seen that day when i opened up my eyes

So just go go away 'cause I never wanna know so just run run away but the shadows take your place so just fall fall away like the leaf you'll get stripped away so just run run away 'cause you will never you will never see m y face
