Beaten senseless in everyway Life disappears, get's blown away New world chaos in disarray A second to die and forever to pray The time has come to push to fight, to die, to live This time I take the fall Don't sort them out just kill them all Just never push my back against the wall Beaten senseless, violent relentless No hope defenseless, beaten senseless Now you pushed me over the edge Can't take it no more, I'm seeing red Beaten senseless over the head Never gonna stop until your all fucking dead Vengeance is my only thought Rage, abuse, the wars I've fought Self preservation is self taught Turn your back and you'll be caught Crushing pain intensity a violent beating senselessly so cruel, agony Broken spirit, broken home, A broken man who can not cope with pain, misery
