

Hurry up don't let sunlight go to waste
Grab your coat and we'll make our clean getaway
We're just gonna leave behind
These worry machines we call our minds
Run off to the sea
Watch the sunlight kick of the diamond waves

Freedom, it's calling, it's calling
Freedom
Freedom, our light's we're golden
Freedom, from everything

Chasing waves as the seagulls cry and dive
Kicking sand as the crazy man rides by Talking 'bout the end of the world
Wish he'd take a break and live for right now
"cause we understand, that this moment is all that we have

Freedom, it's calling, it's calling
Freedom
Freedom, our light's we're golden
Freedom, from everything

When the tightrope won't stop shaking
And opnion starts to wear you down
Time to pull our secret weapon on out
And laugh these bullets right from our hearts
