

Jacqueline

Birdeatsbaby

Those sleepy eyes You've been up all night He won't call You can't make him care - at all

Jacqueline It's just the little things He makes you do He'll tear you in two

Remember when we used to sing - our song He will never let you belong

You're going blind We moved away Your house is now your prison
You're heart's gone grey

You've gone too far And I can't tell I guess you're old enough now To go to hell

Remember when we used to sing - that song He'll never let you belong
Remember when we used to sing - that song He'll never let you belong
Remember when he breaks your heart.
