

The Lighthouse

Birdeatsbaby

Seventy steps to the lighthouse we crept
On the morning after the night before
Seventy steps up the tower
Her hair like Rapunzel
It's more than I can bear

How we dreamed of oceans deep
We'll make them sink
We'll go to sleep
And how we prayed
We prayed for days
But no one came to save us
But the saints will protect us

Seventy times we were warned by our mothers
The danger, temptation, we guide you home
Seventy spirits of Solomon
Crawling up the coastline
We're begging to break this spell

How we dreamed of oceans deep
We'll make them sink
We'll go to sleep
And how we prayed
We prayed for days
But no one came to save us
