

Victoria

Birdeatsbaby

Victoria, I hate to be the one to tell you this But it's gone beyond Everyone's idea of a joke I know you're here On every surface I smell you near The scent of cigarettes and Belvadere Victoria

Morning came, you changed your name Into a V no one knows What you saw, that made your poor heart bleed

Triumphantly You did declare your only love was me So how could he shut you away?

But when I sing That's when I end and then you begin It's sickening in a curious way

But he was strong, his arms were longer than yours What a cruel finishing, the punishing Just to be sure

Well he'll know your name And I now I know I can feel your pain Again and again and again What have I done?

My cell is cold I am so empty and unconsolated Out of the centerfolds Victoria

I was alive, so many times Under your spell It's just as well You are gone, I won't be wronged in hell

All of your ashes still burning Voices that call in the night I feel as if I have carried you all of my life

Victoria, I will remember nothing else, Victoria, you were the one
