

Admiral Red

Birdpen

More guns please don't you know we're crazy.
These slacking strangers can't wait they're lazy.
Fight tonight beware of the crowds they gather like creatures.
More cash now can't you see we're pathetic.
Shaking suit hands like creeps they're ready.
Silent sounds run for your life.
Clear all the towns tonight.
I need to escape this place.
I might end up dead.
I don't feel safe around here.
Please help me Admiral Red.
I need to escape this place.
I might lose my head.
I don't feel safe around here.
Please help me Red Admiral.
Red Admiral.
Please help me Admiral Red.
