

Something caught my eye inside my mind I tried to find it.
Something held my hand that shook my world.
I tried to cut it off.
Something pressed record inside my brain I couldn't stop it.
Something took control inside the screen.
I couldn't turn it off.
Something stole my soul and threw it out with the rubbish.
Someone said be quiet boy I wish that I could turn you off.
Something in the water changing all the different colours.
Stirring up the place with hate.
I wish that I could turn it off.
Something turned my heart to black so I couldn't feel it.
The light burns my eyes so bright with fright.
I wish that I could turn it off.
Something pressed record inside my brain.
I couldn't stop it I couldn't turn it off.
Something took control inside the screen.
I couldn't stop it I couldn't turn it off.
Somebody stole my soul and threw it with the rubbish.
I couldn't stop it I couldn't turn it off.
Turn it off.
