

We were born silence and ignorant and the constancy of our faith would never fail. We are victims and guilty in the same way. Young kids and old timers on barricades.