

You fall between two
Not of the same ilk
No point of view
And you've become reckless
No shown restraint
Allowing your instinct
To outweigh your fate
And that's hardly human

Few know what to do
Consumed by an ego
That turned on the truth
A deep seeded torture
You fight in your sleep
The right side's a demon
The left side is weak
And it's hard being human

You're not an animal [x4]

Resist temptation to
Forget what you changed
The best part of you
From taking your first steps
To breathing your last
I hope you find comfort
In all that has passed
And it's hard being human

You're not an animal [x16]

You're not an animal
Anymore [x4]

You're not an animal...
