

Punk Rock Points

Bis

Don't tell me what I should be listening to
'Cause if I like it, I'll be screaming next to you
If it's a passion, I'll go wherever I choose
Punk rock doesn't just belong to you

I won't let go, I want it more
I feel your stare but it won't move me
I won't let go, I want it more
I feel your stare but it won't move me

Think you know me, you've never opened your mouth
If you point, I'll break your finger off
Segregation's nothing new to me
Maybe your idols won't like your snobbery

I won't let go, I want it more
I feel your stare but it won't move me
I won't let go, I want it more
I feel your stare but it won't move me

I won't let go, I want it more
I feel your stare but it won't move me
I won't let go, I want it more
I feel your stare but it won't move me

We need evil and cerebral
Keep on scoring punk rock points

So upset by what is in your sight
It's, oh, so precious and it's just not right
Repetitive and now I expect it
Just boring, won't put me off one bit

I won't let go, I want it more
I feel your stare but it won't move me
I won't let go, I want it more
I feel your stare but it won't move me

I won't let go, I want it more
I feel your stare but it won't move me
I won't let go, I want it more
I feel your stare but it won't move me
I won't let go, I want it more
I won't let go, I want it more
