

Full Circle

Bishop Lamont

Hook:

Yeah, what goes around, really comes around
Same people you see going up, you see them coming down
But we ain't going all way, till the world keeps spinning
It's no beginning and no ending (full circle!)
Yeah, what goes around, really comes around
Same people you see going up, you see them coming down
But we ain't going all way, till the world keeps spinning
It's no beginning and no ending (full circle!)

Think I gotta fair for every time, somebody called me dirty
I could have retire a millionaire by the time I turned thirty
Well, I just wanna grow old, invested with some dough
Don't keep no beggars move forward till the... solo
You say it's hard to do, dude, I already know it
But if you keep looking back, you never see where you're going!
The inevitable, yeah, you gonna crash
Another emotional... glass.
Forgive your sister fine, keep this in mind
Master free you, even if they ain't never try.
Forgive, but don't forget! Shake off the hate!
Keep the lessons that you learn,
Don't make the same mistake!

Hook:

Yeah, what goes around, really comes around
Same people you see going up, you see them coming down
But we ain't going all way, till the world keeps spinning

Now in my life in town I've seen a lot of shit!
A lot of good, a bunch of bad, but I've survived it!
I've been all around the world,
And no matter where, I'm still the same
Therefore the homie's pouring, bitch niggas hating on my name.
See, nothing changed, except the cash and crew
But same characters...
Back in biblical days they even hated on you
Remember Judas can't smoke what Jesus do!
I ain't gonna die for y'all...
Nothing will change my mind unless Jesus and 2Pac came back
But seriously, folks, do you know this... bogus?
Thirty sleazy shit that people pulling up like you ain't suppose to know this?
And when you call them out, baby, like what's talking about?
Bet niggas moving quickie, put that pistol in their fucking mouth!
But I don't wanna have to go there!
Just give me what I've earned and what's mine, and keep it fair!
But bitch niggas is double daring you
So I take the physical challenge
Cause I'm a firm believer that ass ... build character.
And homie, your character need a whole lot of development!

Hook:

Bitch nigga, yeah what goes around, really comes around
Same people you see going up, you see them coming down
But we ain't going all way, till the world keeps spinning
It's no beginning and no ending (full circle!)
Yeah, what goes around, really comes around

But we ain't going all way, till the world keeps spinning
It's no beginning and no ending (full circle!)

We may not be in the mood to learn what you think you know
Me too, homie, but on the real, fuck my ego!
Cause all I really know is I don't know jack shit
So about the dark we gain sight through the light of the light man.
I'm talking deep shit, fortune cookie talk
But fuck Confucius, he ain't never lived on my block!
Modern times for the modern man
But no matter how complex, it's still the same scheme!
(Message!) I gotta get mine, so momma, take yours
Truly to start and point asses for..
And surely the main reason behind settled scores
Who gonna shoot their missiles first?
Korea, China or Russia?
It don't matter, because we'll all be some dead motherfuckers!
Do want the others cause she... the ones to you
Living, let live, these prophets are so true
But niggas rather floss... define the golden rule
