

Pushin' Out The Light

Bitter Ruin

There he sat his flaxen hair now flat
'Cause out of the light and under hat
Like you took my hand you took it back
For something to hold like putting the cold to match
I can be kinder but stronger to drop so don't you stop
I'll be a changer

You're pushin' out the light 'til you're in the dark again
You wear this cloak to bathe to bed
You're under wraps afraid to she'd
Pushin' out the light 'til you're on your own again
Pushin' out my love

Singing like a dove says 'who' and why am I?
'Cause I've been a door and nothing more
When you're out of love could you care that I'm not dry?
Water to spare and plenty more
I can be softer but harder to stop so keep the slow
I'll be a changer

You're pushin' out the light 'til you're in the dark again
You wear this cloak to bathe to bed
You're under wraps afraid to she'd
Pushin' out the light 'til you're on your own again
Pushin' out my love

You've been a spoonfed since you were a kid
All I wanna know is why it is

You're pushin' out the light 'til you're in the dark again
You wear this cloak to bathe to bed
You're under wraps afraid to she'd
Pushin' out the light 'til you're on your own again
Pushin' out my love
