

We Come Right Away

Bizzy Bone

Yeah! Hahaha
What you didn't believe me?
This the year of Illuminated
I told you we was gon' shut this shit down

You, you, you, you Better call Regime cause we come right awayyyyyyy, bay-bay

The valley of death, go creep in the shadows and gallop to gallow, the way that we ride Probably thinkin it's over, the other side baby divided, go peek at the time Reminded to open the pupil, the blind, look at the duty
Don't think that I look at the booty From everything that I was listenin whippin and tippin the dirty, the mind, uhh!
Distinguish is somethin they keep on on tellin me
I don't know nothin Wanted to conquer the competent, never be pompous stay dominant, givin 'em doves and In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, feelin the love And the beauty is real, beautiful field Remember thou shalt not kill, the brother you're near Whenever you need me I'm never exceeding the beautiful blessings and beautiful lessings I'm never gon' stress, I'm not here to impress 'em and it's plain as steel Look at the metal, the metal, now metal now let me go grab it before we collide Remember we'll never be hesitant baby remember the Lord provides, one time!

You, you, you, you, you, you Shit! Gimme another one, WOO! Gimme another one
