

The Deverell Twins

Black Box Recorder

I'm swimming with the Deverell Twins
I haven't got a care in the world not a care - they're looking after me

This is the age of chivalry
This is the age of alchemy

I'm invited by the Deverell Twins
I'm delighted to accept their hospitality

This is the life of luxury
It's the beginning of the end

They showed me their charts
A way to the stars
Said I'm as pretty as a picture

I'm admired by the Deverell Twins
They're very fond of me,
they tell me their secrets

This is the age of chivalry
It's the beginning of the end

Bridge:

They started the fire
And stifled their grins
No-one suspected
The Deverell Twins

I'm enchanted by the Deverell Twins
I'm as pretty as a picture
