

Bastard In Love

Black Flag

Bastard in love, theres no turnin' back punish your lover and then turn your back punish your futer despite your past love turns to hate with every spell you cast you keep waitin' for the love that you wanna feel but you never belive it when they tell that love is real you keep wishin' but

My love is real my love is real my love is real bastard in love they push you shove theres no point in asking we'll never know why you want but don't listn and sit home and cry my heart sits further than each of your lies you keep waitin' for the love that you wanna feel
but you never belive it when they tell that love is real
you keep wishin' but

My love is real my love is real my love is real my love is real

Yeah!

You keep waitin' for the love that you wanna feel
but you never belive it when they tell that love is real

bastard in love I can't help my feel and what I feel I feel to the end there may be no right and there may be no wrong but there is pain and it always lasts too long

you keep wishin' but

MY LOVE IS REAL!
