

I'm the One

Black Flag

I was looking for a lover.
Living underneath the sun.
I thought I was the other.
When I knew I was the one.

Caught a handle on the rising sun.
Took a day to rise and fall.
At the end of the trail I was scarred and burned.
But I felt no pain at all.

Walking through a world of lies
With a heart made out of stone
I looked deep into my eyes
And I knew I was alone
Caught a handle on the rising sun.

Took a day to rise and fall.
At the end of the trail I was scarred and burned.
But I felt no pain at all.
I'm a son of a son I'm the son of the sun

My death trip Has just begun
Caught a handle on the rising sun.
Took a day to rise and fall.
At the end of the trail I was scarred and burned.

But I felt no pain at all.
I was looking for a lover.
Living underneath the sun.
I thought I was the other.

When I knew I was the one.
Caught a handle on the rising sun.
Took a day to rise and fall.
At the end of the trail I was scarred and burned.

But I felt no pain at all.
