I'm the One

I was looking for a lover. Living underneath the sun. I thought I was the other. When I knew I was the one.

Caught a handle on the rising sun. Took a day to rise and fall. At the end of the trail I was scarred and burned. But I felt no pain at all.

Walking through a world of lies With a heart made out of stone I looked deep into my eyes And I knew I was alone Caught a handle on the rising sun.

Took a day to rise and fall. At the end of the trail I was scarred and burned. But I felt no pain at all. I'm a son of a son I'm the son of the sun

My death trip Has just begun Caught a handle on the rising sun. Took a day to rise and fall. At the end of the trail I was scarred and burned.

But I felt no pain at all. I was looking for a lover. Living underneath the sun. I thought I was the other.

When I knew I was the one. Caught a handle on the rising sun. Took a day to rise and fall. At the end of the trail I was scarred and burned.

But I felt no pain at all.
