

Mine Again

Black Lab

There's a place I used to go
There's a world I used to know
There was a light and it was you
Every word I say is true I say

Every day I will wait
Till you're mine again
I will die every day
Till you're mine again
There's no words to explain
No beginning and no end
I will dream, I will pray
You'll be mine again

I can see you dressed in red
All the secret things you said
Lying barefoot in the grass
Now my heart is in your hands
Your hands

Every day I will wait
Till you're mine again
I will die every day
Till you're mine again
There's no words to explain
No beginning and no end
I will dream, I will pray
You'll be mine again

It's just time that runs between us
It's the ocean underneath us
It's the picture that won't fade away

Every day I will wait
Till you're mine again
I will die every day
Till you're mine again
There's no words to explain
No beginning and no end
I will dream, I will pray
You'll be mine again
