

Remember

Black Lab

It was wild in the street
Wild in the night
Blistering cold in the cold daylight
I could feel your hands
Pushing hard on me
And all the fights that I tried to fight fair
All the nights that you spent with me
I swear

Do you remember?
'cause I remember?
Do you remember?
'cause I remember what you said to me
Remember like it was just some dream
But I lost my faith
Did you lose yours too?
Would you bleed for me?
I would bleed for you

And the blood gets thick
At the end of the night
You in my sheets like a sodium light
I could feel your skin coming off your soul
Reeling me in like there's nothing you don't know

And I won't speak I won't write
I won't call you on the phone
Won't listen to my mind
If I hear you call me home
