Tell Me What To Say

Tell me what to say And I will say it to you

I take one for the heartbreak One for the headache Two for the constant tears I take one for the blindness One for the foolishness Trying to keep you here

I would stop waiting Stop crying Stop breathing in, too While you stay away so long

I would stop calling Stop writing Stop faking Stop denying you're as good as gone But I dunno

So you just tell me what to say And I will say it to you I would do it for you I would burn this house down

Tell me what to say And I will say it to you I would do what you do I would burn us to the ground

Even on weekdays Even on Sunday Even in the blackest nights Even when you touch me I know you don't love me And, uh, can't make it right

I would stop waiting Stop walking Stop trying to start you talking Or say your old goodbyes

I would stop drinking Stop feeling Break down and start believing You might change your mind Well, I dunno

So you just tell me what to say And I will say it to you I would do it for you I would burn this house down Tell me what to say And I will say it to you I would do what you do I would burn us to the ground Hey, well, I dunno So you just tell me what to say And I'll say it to you I would do it for you I would burn this house down

Tell me what to say And I will say it to you I would do it for you I would burn us to the ground
