The death, the lies, in lies the truth All that it is, what was, ain't true

I was down but now I can see The pain, the hurt, the misery

Oh Lord, it's been a long time
Doing my best I'll try and get it next time
Oh Lord, it's been a long time
Doing my best I'll try and get it next time

This cross you bare, I've come to carry for you This cross you bare, I've come to break it in two

I was down but now I can see The pain, the hurt, the misery

Oh Lord, it's been a long time
Doing my best I'll try and get it next time
Oh Lord, it's been a long time
Doing my best I'll try and get it next time

Oh Lord, it's been a long time
Doing my best I'll try and get it next time
Oh Lord, it's been a long time
Doing my best I'll try and get it next time

Oh Lord, it's been a long time
Doing my best I'll try and get it next time
Oh Lord, it's been a long time
Doing my best I'll try and get it next time
