

Beyond the Down

Black Label Society

Travel the ways singing the unknown
Come with me, the truth it shall be shown

Forget all you know and all that you've learned
Bridges of doubt shall all be burned
Who you are, it shall be found
Through the darkest light beyond the down

Temple of light, you shall not be mourned
Trampled beneath the shaking light that has been sworn

Forget all you know and all that you've learned
Bridges of doubt shall all be burned
Who you are, it shall be found
Through the darkest light beyond the down
