But all along
It always was
The same old song
And dance for now
You dance so proud
You sing so loud
You break apart
A work of art

Hope is gone
But all along
It always was
The same old song
And dance for now
You dance so proud
You sing so loud
You break apart
A work of art
