

Symphony Of Death

Black Majesty

You will remember me tomorrow are you forget them yesterday when all is said, and all is done this roll is now become as one my melancholy symphony of death

When our life is glimming that's when the child belong there's no chance for us tomorrow still we look for yesterday there's no image as tomorrow only memories, only memories today

There are two images of you staring back on me when I blinded turn my back tot he fire and hell so cast this bound to separate me from you drop me down to real lives you're not as .. there's no more cheers tomorrow you're in a world of sorrow nothing will stand in the way

Oh can you be so shallow, I don't want to be alone symphony of..with no regret ..singin this would be the last of me to make it the rest.. meet me just a..gone in.. that's a distance of separate..
I'm on from being with you

There's no more tears tomorrow you're in the world of sorrow nothing can stand in the way How can you be so shallow
I don't want to be alone
symphony of you..with no regrets

How can you be so shallow I don't want to be so alone symphony of you..with no regrets
