

The Naglfar Saga: Sailing Into Eternity

Black Messiah

Now the time has come, I'm on the ship under Ymir's thumb
Sad and full of grief my vision blurs and I feel numb

We're on the ship of nails under a thousand wails
We are all unfree, this is our destiny
Eternally undead as a malefic thread
We're on an endless rave on top of the crest of wave

The words of Mother Hel will follow me to the end of time
She did not give me a chance for recompense and to regret all my sins
I am damned, forever bound, only a slave on the Nail-Ship
Now I am forlorn, I am an unsacred soul so alone and despaired

We're on the ship of nails under a thousand wails
We are unfree, this is our destiny
Eternally undead as a malefic thread
We're on an endless rave on top of the crest of wave
