

Short Life Line

Black Oak Arkansas

A fine lookin woman walked up to me yesterday.
She grabbed my palm,
here's what she had to say.

Ooh you got a short life line.
Ooh you ain't got much time.
But your eyes'll never be blind
and you're gonna have a damn good time.

Said yea yea mama
short but sweet.
Lot a places to see,
also people to meet.

Ooh you got a short life line.
Ooh you ain't got much time.
But your eyes'll never be blind
and you're gonna have a damn good time.

My life has already been full,
so I can't complain.
Yea and after I'm dead
they'll remember my name.

But mystic thoughts can only fly
to another plane.
That's why when you look in my eyes
you think that I'm insane.

Watch while we harness energy
from the multitudes,
then ride it bare-back
on our high energy tunes.

Now that woman
no longer held my hand.
She was feelin my body,
she knew I'd understand.

Ooh you got a short life line.
Ooh you ain't got much time.
But your eyes'll never be blind
and you're gonna have a damn good time.
