

All You Do Is Talk

Black Rebel Motorcycle Club

Help yourself don't say a thing
Your love won't show in anything at all
If all you do is talk

Sadly I remain in need
Of all the things you say
But leave in speak
All you do is talk

Help yourself don't think
Help yourself don't speak
Help yourself don't say a thing at all
You're lucky words don't bleed

You time the end of all we see
You say we're on our way
And all will be
Alone in everything

You say it's all we'll ever need
You've found an easy way
But still you weep
Alone in everything

Help yourself don't think
Help yourself don't speak
Help yourself don't say a thing at all
You're lucky words don't bleed

Help yourself don't say a thing
What love you show won't mean a thing at all
If all you do is talk

Sadly we remain to see
What brings an end is also what we need
All you do is talk

Help yourself don't think
Help yourself don't speak
Help yourself don't say a thing at all
You're lucky words don't bleed
