All You Do Is Talk

Black Rebel Motorcycle Club

Help yourself don't say a thing Your love won't show in anything at all If all you do is talk

Sadly I remain in need Of all the things you say But leave in speak All you do is talk

Help yourself don't think
Help yourself don't speak
Help yourself don't say a thing at all
You're lucky words don't bleed

You time the end of all we see You say we're on our way And all will be Alone in everything

You say it's all we'll ever need You've found an easy way But still you weep Alone in everything

Help yourself don't think
Help yourself don't speak
Help yourself don't say a thing at all
You're lucky words don't bleed

Help yourself don't say a thing What love you show won't mean a thing at all If all you do is talk

Sadly we remain to see What brings an end is also what we need All you do is talk

Help yourself don't think
Help yourself don't speak
Help yourself don't say a thing at all
You're lucky words don't bleed
