Black Rebel Motorcycle Club

I never wanted so much
I unleashed with the fury of a fire
I only wanted your touch
I am seen as a sinner and a liar

I never took you so high
I can feel all the traces of the sky
I never held you so tight
I conceal all the worst that you desire

You know it's true
I'm walking through the same broken world as you
But can't you see
You're living in the same tangled web as me

I never wanted so much
I unleashed with the fury of a fire
I never meant you goodbye
I could bleed out the poison in your eyes

You know it's true
I'm walking through the same broken world as you
Can't you see
You're living in the same tangled web as me
