Sometimes the Light

Black Rebel Motorcycle Club

Sometimes the silence is all we know You leave your picture a fallen love What lines our memory, we carry on Sometimes the light turns out to right All of these wrongs All of these wrongs All of these wrongs

Sometimes the fallen are all we know
In every picture, a silent home
For all remembered have all become
Sometimes the light turns out to right
All of these wrongs
All of these wrongs
All of these wrongs

Sometimes it's fallen on everyone Sometimes it's falling on everyone (4x)Sometimes the light turns out to shine With everyone (4x)
