

Weight of the World

Black Rebel Motorcycle Club

This is more than I wanted
Take me out of the dark I roam in Cold and black you are out of touch here
Lightly falling you whisper you're scared

It's the weight of the world I know
As I struggle to be whole
It's the weight of the world I know
As you are mine and we will find

This is stranger than love or loss
Turning back words you face the dawning
No excuse for a wasted life
Lightly falling through a whisper of sky

Time will change still the world remains the same
Time will change still the world remains the same

It's the weight of the world I know
As I struggle to be whole
It's the weight of the world I know
As you are mine and we will fly
