

The Law Maker

Black Sabbath

The horizon breaks, where a figure stands
Close your eyes and pray it's a vision of God's command

He's evil and mysterious
People fear his name
He's not here for deliverance, no
He's the Lawmaker

He never speaks, but his task we're told
To seek out souls of the sinners, he'll trade for gold

He's evil and mysterious
People fear his name
He's not here for deliverance, no
He's the Lawmaker

Silver mountains won't save you from hell
The prince of darkness inside you will dwell
Oh your weakness your past
The Lawmaker comes

He's evil and mysterious
People fear his name
He's not here for deliverance, no
He's the Lawmaker
He's the Lawmaker
