

Please Come In

Black Stone Cherry

I have looked out my window and you know she's no longer there
There's an angel standing in the place where she once cared
Could it be that easy for her to say goodbye?

Please come in, don't pretend like the girl I had before,
Please come in, don't pretend, I don't wanna hurt anymore

It must be the time for me to leave it behind,
Cause there's a new day out there where the sun will always shine

Please come in, don't pretend like the girl I had before,
Please come in, don't pretend, I don't wanna hurt anymore

If you look out your window and there's an angel there,
I hope she plays a guitar with flowers, flowers in her hair

Please come in, but don't pretend
Won't you please come in Listen baby

Please come in, don't pretend like the girl I had before,
Please come in, don't pretend, I don't wanna hurt anymore

Please come in... don't you pretend...
