

Horizon

Black Sun Aeon

Black flame from the abyss
In vein was attempt to restrain its powers

Regain, restore and contain
The might of the fallen

Forces of legions inside with strength I ablaze
So I can be reborn

Begin the last solar cycle
Arise and erase with power

Ignite the bleak horizon
Set the sky on fire

In fire
I was reborn and reawakened

Still Higher
Into the core of the sun

Wings of fire
I forged from the flames

I fly
Towards the blazing star
