

Heaven

Black Tide

I know we only spent a few days together
Somehow it felt like forever
I let you into my lonesome world
And now I want a piece of yours

I loved every moment with you

Cause looking in your eyes
Was like peeking into heaven
I'm aching to see you again
I could stare at your smile
For days on end
I'm aching to feel you again

I miss it how we would just lay around
And the way your body replied to mine
Oh baby now it's just a waiting game
Until our bodies intertwine

I'll make the most of every moment with you

Cause looking in your eyes
Was like peeking into heaven
I'm aching to see you again
I could stare at your smile
For days on end
I'm aching to feel you again

I'll make the most of every second with you

Cause looking in your eyes
Was like peeking into heaven
I'm aching to see you again
I could stare at your smile
For days on end
I'm aching to feel you again

Looking in your eyes
Is like peeking into heaven
I'm aching to see you again
I could stare at your smile
For days on end
I'm aching to feel you again
