

Walk Away

Black Veil Brides

Now our lives have changed, I wish that I could heal
Time has taken love, a darker side revealed
For every lie begins, with what we used to feel

Blaming myself, tied to these chains, living in pain.
All of your tears, everything's gone, is it too late?
Walk Away!

A lonely heart will mend, until we know the truth
But if it stays the same, can we make it through?
A life without the hurt, a life without you

Blaming myself, tied to these chains, living in pain.
All of your tears, everything's gone, is it too late?
Walk away
Everything's gone
Everything's gone

Blaming myself, tied to these chains, living in pain.
All of your tears, everything's gone, is it too late?
Walk away (everything's gone)
Walk away (everything's gone)
Walk away

A life without you
Everything's gone
A life without you
Everything's gone
