

All Gone

Black Water Rising

You and I are but a passing breeze
Like dust dancing in the setting sun
And every seconds a lifetime to simply be
So count the seconds one by one
And savor each moment till it's done

(Chorus)

When it's all gone it's all gone
We're riding on the rays of a setting sun
When it's all gone it's all gone
We're riding on the rays of a setting sun

So here we are and there we were
And what will be will eventually be
Cast adrift on a sinking ship
In an endless heartless sea
That knows nothing of you and me

(Chorus)
