Broken Man

Black Water Rising

She watches over me my sadness I lie asleep within her cold embrace Heaven help me but there is no reply I'm falling deeper does anyone hear my cry

She comes upon me like madness In her shadow where I trip and fall Lost and beaten a slave to my weakness I've given into this growing bleakness

(Chorus) Move on move on Been carrying this weight for far too long Too long too long So many years have come and gone Still here singing the song of a broken man

This wall that manifests before me Foreboding symbol of intimidation Overcoming I have nothing to lose But fear and anguish this is the path I choose

(Chorus)
