Sometimes for the asking

Black

Sometimes you laugh Sometimes we smile at each other Sometimes you give a lot when really you'd rather not

And sometimes you pray Sometimes you tell a lie Sometimes you take a hold of this your living day

So many dreams for the asking
And I'll wager there's one here who'll try to make a fool of you
You're crying out for more
More more more

So many dreams for the asking
And I'll wager there's one here who'll try to make a man of you
You're crying out for more
More more more
