

Paragraphs

Blackbear

I've been writin' all these paragraphs
Select it all, delete
And never write your ass back
Feel easily defeated
Why's it gotta be like that?
You say you gonna leave and then you come right back

Swear to God, swear to God
We been goin' through it, goin' through it
I know I put you through some shit, one time
Don't do this, don't do this
Let me prove that I'm the man, one time
So cold, so ruthless
I'ma beg you on my knees, one time
Just stay right here, don't let me go, yeah

Don't lose your head
I didn't mean to lose my head
I didn't mean to lose you, lose you, lose you
I didn't mean to lose you, lose you, lose you

Maybe it was summertime sweetness, Saturdays we got some Everything was awesome, I didn't see the problem
Drinkin' from the bottle 'til we blacked out from mixing
Dreamin' 'bout the days we'd be carefree, living

But we lived carefree, at that time I didn't know it yet
I felt the love in my heart, but didn't show it yet
And now I'm writing all these paragraphs
I just wanna make it last, wanna make it last

I've been writin' all these paragraphs
