

Almost A Memory Now

BlackHawk

She gets her things together
Puts them by the door
She says there's no love here anymore
I'll never be the same if she walks out
But she's almost a memory

Now
Wish I could turn her heart around
I feel so alone and she's not even gone
She's almost a memory now

She hasn't even left but I know she's gone
She never even said where we went wrong
One thing that I know without a doubt
She's almost a memory

Now
Wish I could turn her heart around
I feel so alone and she's not even gone
She's almost a memory now

I feel so alone and she's not even gone
She's almost a memory now
She's almost a memory now
Wish I could turn her heart around
She's almost a memory now
She's almost
She's almost a memory now
