

If That Was A Lie

BlackHawk

If that was a lie,
That was the sweetest lie that I have ever heard,
Every word.
If that was a lie,
Was it something that you didn't really mean to say,
But said it anyway?
You can take it back if you want to,
But I'm still gonna believe you,
Every word.
If that was a lie,
It was the sweetest lie that I have ever heard.

Tell me now, was it my imagination,
Or just a whisper on the wind?
You know the tricks the heart can play.
I swear, I thought I heard you say
You loved me, yeah, you loved me.

If that was a lie,
That was the sweetest lie that I have ever heard,
Every word.
If that was a lie,
Was it something that you didn't really mean to say,
But said it anyway?
You can take it back if you want to,
But I'm still gonna believe you,
Every word.
If that was a lie,
It was the sweetest lie that I have ever heard.

I felt it in your tender touch,
I wanted to believe so much,
But was afraid to let you know.
I've been waiting for so long to say I didn't hear you wrong,
You loved me, yeah, you loved me.

If that was a lie,
That was the sweetest lie that I have ever heard,
Every word.
If that was a lie,
Was it something that you didn't really mean to say,
But said it anyway?

If that was a lie.
