

I Am Weighing Me Down

Blacklisted

The pressures building and nothings fulfilling,
Slow down I can't keep running,
The good word is you get what you deserve,
I know my time is coming,
Hey, Hey, Hey,
I'm the only one left in my life,
I am me and I am mine,
So go ahead say that I'm ill,
But do you know what that really means?,
Hey, Hey, Hey,
Everyones open to heaven, but no ones open to death,
That's why the entire world is a graveyard,
Filled with those who lost their step,
I'm the only one left in my life,
I am me and I am mine,
So go ahead say that I'm ill,
But do you know what that really means?
There's times I know I don't take care of myself,
So lost inside my mixed state mental health,
We all bury ourselves, when we feel there's nothing left,
We don't need jesus to please us,
It's not as comforting as you'd like to guess.
