

1000 Miles

Blake Lewis

Now that it's over
Now that you're not here
I have to start over but when I begin, I'm lost inside my head
I can't remember
A day without you here
Piecing the puzzle of memories I'm guarding, and all that was left unsaid

I don't know where your heart is
Don't know, I'm up too late
But I will find a way

Can you hear me now?
Through all that the world is screaming
My words will reach you somehow (somehow)
Can you hear me now?
With every word I'm breathing
And you're a thousand miles away

I knew when I saw you
The day when we first met
I'd say anything just to stop your world
And my love has never left

I did not hold the answers
Didn't know our story's end
But did my words find you then?

Can you hear me now?
Through all that the world is screaming
My words will reach you somehow (somehow)
Can you hear me now?
With every word I'm breathing
And you're a thousand miles away

You always listen to words left hurting
Now's your chance to heal a heart still yearning
You're the best thing that still is happening to me

Always listen to words left hurting
Now's your chance to heal a heart still yearning
You're the best thing that still is happening to me, me, me
'Cause I'm still calling

Can you hear me now?
Through all that the world is screaming
My voice will reach you somehow (somehow)
Can you hear me now?
With every word I'm breathing
When you're a thousand miles away

You always listen to words left hurting
Now's your chance to heal a heart still yearning
You're the best thing that still is happening to me
