

Hate 2 Love Her

Blake Lewis

She loves the finer things
Gold and diamond rings
Give her the moon but wouldn't be enough
She wants the perfect man
Has a perfect plan
And nothing I do could ever live up

But I'm falling
Alright
And she's falling
Alright
We're heading for perfect disaster
And I'm falling
All night
And she's falling
Tonight
But wait till the morning

I know that I hate her
Even though I love her
She's making my heart hurt
I cant describe, describe...
How I hate her
Everytime I'm with her
All I do is want her
Why do I even try

I give her all I've got to give
But she makes it so hard to live
And I do everything I can
But she wants, she wants, she wants
She wants a perfect man

oh-oh-oh, oh-oh-oh, oh-oh-oh, oh, oh

My love's the simple kind
But its hard to find
With anyone else
They would get in line
But she's all that I can see
Something's wrong with me
Cause all that she wants
I could never be

But I'm falling
Alright
And she's falling
Alright
We're heading for perfect disaster
And I'm falling
All night
And she's falling
Tonight
But wait till the morning

I know that I hate her

She's making my heart hurt
How I hate her
All I do is want her
Why do I even try

And I'd do everything I can
But she wants, she wants, she wants,

Everything about her
Every time around her
She's in control
Like it don't matter
Just another body swinging for show
I'm underrated, rehabilitated, ready to go
But cant she understand that I know, I know

But I'm falling
Alright
And she's falling
Alright
We're heading for perfect disaster
And I'm falling
All night
And she's falling
Tonight
But wait till the morning

I know that I hate her
Even though I love her
How I hate her
Every time I'm with her
All I do is want her
Why do I even try

I give her all I've got to give
But she wants, she wants, she wants,

oh-oh-oh, oh-oh-oh, oh-oh-oh, oh, oh, yeah
