

Rebel Without A Cause

Blake Lewis

Two months have come and gone since I walked out the door
Now I'm left here kicking myself cuz you deserve much more
Infinite reason why I shouldn't let you go
But I shut you out my life, how could I have been so cold

Just cuz I thought
Alone I'd solve my problems
Thought I'd move on
That I could break the wave

I'm gone
Am I running away from what we should be
And I'm lost
My conscience keep telling me constantly

That maybe I'm wrong
Cuz we both belong
Together as one meets our destiny
And I'm lost
Without your love I will be
A rebel without a cause

Why'd I leave, why'd I leave
Why'd I have to be so rebellious

Why'd I leave, why'd I leave
Why'd I have to be so rebellious

Why'd I leave, why'd I leave
Why'd I have to be so rebellious

I wish I knew what's goin on inside your head
So I could hear all of the words you left unsaid
I'm just too far away and you're too far moved on, oh
Hope I haven't lost your love, how did I wait too long

Just cuz I thought
Alone I'd solve my problems
Thought I'd move on
That I could break the wave

I'm gone
Am I running away from what we should be
And I'm lost
My conscience keep telling me constantly
(My conscience keeps telling me)

That maybe I'm wrong
Cuz we both belong
Together as one meets our destiny
And I'm lost
Without your love I will be
A rebel without a cause

Why'd I leave, why'd I leave
Why'd I have to be so rebellious

Why'd I leave, why'd I leave
Why'd I have to be so rebellious

Why'd I leave, why'd I leave
Why'd I have to be so rebellious

A rebel without a cause
Rebel without a cause
A rebel without a cause
