

This Is My Now

Blake Lewis

There was a time I packed my dreams away
Living in a shell, hiding from myself

There was a time when I was so afraid
Thought I'd reached the end
Baby that was then
I am made of more than my yesterday's

This is my now, and I am breathing in the moment
But I look around
I can't believe the love I see
My fears behind me, gone are the shadows and doubts
That was then, this is my now.

And I have the courage like never before, yeah
I've settled for less now I'm ready for more
Ready for more

This is my now, and I am breathing in the moment
But I look around
I can't believe the love I see
My fears behind me, gone are the shadows and doubts
That was then, this is my now.
