

Bluebird

Blanche

Good morning, honey
Good morning darlin'
Did you have a good nights sleep?
Yes, I slept very deep

Did you have sweet dreams?
That depends what you mean
That bluebird came and whispered in my ear
Did it tell you that I'd die for you my dear?

Did he tell you that?
He surely did. alright then

He perched on my window sill
He went 'don't you wait until
That man you love has gone away
Bluebird, what can I do but pray?

I don't care what that birds saying
There ain't no need for praying
Except to pray that bluebird stays away
Forever next to you I'll always lay

Goodnight my darlin'
Goodnight my honey
Close your eyes and go to sleep
Tonight I'll sleep very deep
(Go)
