

Manifesto

Blank & Jones

You and and me 's no room for me
In your slumber
Your skin is hot against the sheets
You burn like gumbo

Only I can see you
Only I can sing you
Only I can see you
Only I can save you

I painted my walls red for you
It's like I said
I don't play dead
Yes, you're a sexy gun
I'll take the pain

Over none

Only I can see you
Only I can sing you
Only I can see you
Only I can save you

All the things you made me learn
The hardest was
So I'll write my manifesto
If it comes to that

Only I can see you
Only I can sing you
Only I can see you
Only I can save you
